About Your Data

North Lincolnshire Beekeepers Association undertakes to collect and use your personal data in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Our legal basis for processing this data is our legitimate interest as a beekeeping association. We use the data for the administration of your membership, the communication of information and the organisation of events, training courses, assessments and exams.

This information will be recorded in our membership database, which may be stored online in compliance with the GDPR. Our membership data is shared with the British Beekeepers Association (BBKA), the country's largest charity dedicated to helping Honeybees and the beekeepers that look after them, and also with the Lincolnshire Beekeepers Association (LBKA). Your information is also passed to the National Bee Unit (NBU) for the purpose of control of notifiable pests and diseases and to HMRC for claiming Gift Aid.

Your data may be processed by the LBKA and the BBKA acting as Data Processors on our behalf. Your contact details will be included in the LBKA Directory of Members unless specified otherwise.

Your personal data is not passed on by us for use by any other third parties whether or not connected with beekeeping. Full information about our data use policies such as the LBKA's Safeguarding Code of Practice and the Data Privacy Policy can be found on the LBKA Website and the BBKA's equivalent information at www.bbka.org.uk/gdpr.
